

March 2, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

James D'Aloisio Joins National Board, Two Staff Members LEED Accredited

Klepper, Hahn & Hyatt, a professional firm that provides structural engineering, landscape architecture, and facade and roof consulting services, has announced that James A. D'Aloisio, P.E., SECB, LEED AP, has been elected to the national Board of Directors of the U.S. Green Building Council.

Mr. D'Aloisio is a member of the Advisory Board and the Program Committee of the New York Upstate Chapter of the USGBC, in which he has been active since its inception. He is filling a one-year vacancy on the national board.

Mr. D'Aloisio is a Principal and Secretary-Treasurer with Klepper, Hahn & Hyatt. He is a practicing structural engineer with more than 25 years of experience, certified by the Structural Engineering Certification Board, and is a member of the Sustainability Committee of the American Society of Civil Engineers' Structural Engineering Institute. He has presented on sustainability topics many times to building design professionals and to various other groups. Mr. D'Aloisio lives in Jamesville.

Two members of the firm have earned their LEED Accredited Professional (LEED AP) designation from the USGBC:

Craig L. Arnold, P.E., LEED AP, is a Project Engineer. He is currently working on educational and institutional projects. Mr. Arnold lives in Chittenango.

Kyle Oberdorf, E.I.T., LEED AP, is a Structural Engineering Designer. He is involved in the structural design of hospitals, schools and residences. Mr. Oberdorf lives in Liverpool.

Klepper, Hahn & Hyatt, founded in 1950, offers a scope of services which includes structural building design for new buildings, additions and renovations; restoration of historic building structures; landscape architecture; masonry, facade and roofing investigations and design of rehabilitative work; structural investigations; and construction-phase services. The firm employs 39 people in its offices in East Syracuse.

#

Photos Attached: James A. D'Aloisio, P.E., SECB, LEED AP
 Craig L. Arnold, P.E., LEED AP
 Kyle Oberdorf, E.I.T., LEED AP

For more information, contact: Robyn A. Larwood, Director of Marketing & Development
Office: 315-446-9201 Direct: 315-413-7961 Email: ral@khhpc.com